MNU

Mokpo National University to the World to the Future
together with Local Community

An education hub in the new maritime era, Mokpo National University has embarked on a new journey!

Mokpo National University, which is about to celebrate the 70th anniversary of its foundation, has been making a transition into a local education hub in the new maritime era by fulfilling the educational philosophies centering on creation, integrity and service.

We have been incorporating into our curriculum the matters related to local development as well as the key elements of the new maritime industries that are pivotal for local development as a means to become a specialized university. We are dedicated to equipping our students with the creativity, practical skills and competency necessary to work in the field immediately after graduation in addition to discovering and nurturing new growth engine industries for local development through academic-industrial cooperation projects.

We at MNU will continue to serve and grow together with our community based on our excellent competency, abundant experience and the passion of the members of our university, and secure a firmer ground as a leading university in the world. In addition, with the implementation of our branding strategies, we will strive to enhance the brand value of MNU.

MNU, where strong priority is placed on learning, employment and sharing, will create a better future for the region. I ask for your support as we continue to undergo constructive changes and endless growth.

Choi Il
The 7th President of Mokpo National University
